Do you have this joy? 'This is the fresh, new, life-giving way that Christ has opened up for us.' Hebrews 10:20 TLB In the Old Testament there were more religious laws than anybody could possibly keep: over six hundred. And every time you failed, you had to offer an animal sacrifice as atonement. This resulted in people trying and failing; feeling guilty and trying harder; failing again and making more sacrifices. It was a never-ending cycle. Then Jesus came and opened up 'the fresh, new, life-giving way...for us' to have a relationship with God. His way included forgiveness for sin, and the replacement of sacrifices with faith in Him. For many it was just too good to be true, so they kept working and trying to impress God with their goodness. Are you doing that? One Christian author writes: 'I lived that way for years. It meant having to do everything perfectly; otherwise I was in trouble with God. Since this was an impossible standard to keep, it stole all my peace and joy. While I was trying to walk in love, I wasn't a very loving person. I couldn't give others what I didn't know how to receive myself! I wasn't receiving God's mercy for my failures; therefore I couldn't offer it to anybody else. I tried to follow all the rules, many that weren't even scriptural - just things to feel guilty about. But thank God I don't have to live that way anymore. Now I'm not working to be saved, I'm working because I am saved! My salvation isn't based on what I do, but solely on what Jesus has done for me.' When you understand this truth, your relationship with God is no longer a job - it's a joy.

As you enter this building, please remember;
The many people who over the years have striven
To make this into a place:-
Of Welcome and Worship,
Peace and Praise,
Fellowship and Friendship,
But be aware,
It is God who fills this place with His presence,
It is His love that surrounds you,
It is His heart that listens to you,
It is His Spirit that speaks to you,
It is His Son who died for you.
This place is but a temporary home,
A place to rest, to feed, to fellowship,
To strengthen and refresh ourselves
On our journey through life.
May you receive all God has to offer.
And may we all meet in the Kingdom to come.
Amen
