DEVOTIONAL EXCERPT

God promises peace to His people, whatever circumstances we are going through. Many centuries ago, His prophet Isaiah assured the Israelites of the gift of peace. They should trust in the Lord forever, "for the Lord, the Lord himself, is the Rock eternal" (Isaiah 26:4).

After all, those who trust in Him, keeping their minds fixed on Him, will be kept "in perfect peace" (v. 3). Interestingly, in Hebrew, that term perfect peace appears as shalom shalom. The word being repeated emphasises the intensity of the thought.

We might face a shattering diagnosis, a heart-rending betrayal, a disappointing result. But we can trust that not only will God never leave us, but that He will keep us in His perfect peace.

"You will keep in perfect peace those whose minds are steadfast, because they trust in you. Isaiah 26.3"
