DEVOTIONAL EXCERPT

Anita and her husband, Ed, felt powerless to save their son from the consequences of his unwise choices, which resulted in 12 years in prison for him. Though the Baileys felt powerless, they were not prayerless.

Neither was King Jehoshaphat. When harassed by enemy forces, he called a prayer meeting (vv. 1-4). "For we have no power to face this vast army that is attacking us. We do not know what to do, but our eyes are on you" (v. 12).

Have you ever felt powerless? Prayer space is the sacred place where the petitions of powerless people are offered to our almighty God in the name of Jesus.

“

We do not know what to do, but our eyes are on you.
2 Chron 20.12.
