DEVOTIONAL EXCERPT

Whatever our age, there's a tender heart of a child within each of us that aches to be seen, heard and loved. But the psalmist David demonstrated how God delights in showing up for His children.

David prayed with confidence in a love that never fails, forgets or forsakes—the love of our heavenly Father. Confessing his need, David prayed with faith in God's trustworthiness (Psalm 86:1-4).

He declared that God is "forgiving and good, abounding in love." He sang, "When I am in distress, I call to you, because you answer me." David cried out with expectation because God had proven His faithfulness.

Like David, we can trust our heavenly Father to show up because He promises to do so. We too can sing, "I will praise you, Lord my God, with all my heart."

> "I will praise you, Lord my God,
> with all my heart;
> I will glorify your name forever."
