DEVOTIONAL EXCERPT

The writer of Hebrews wrote of our "great high priest" (4:14)—Jesus Himself—who did much more than merely gain understanding of our struggles.

He lived among us, learning how we feel in every situation. Hebrews tells us, "We do not have a high priest who is unable to empathise with our weaknesses, but we have one who has been tempted in every way, just as we are—yet he did not sin" (v. 15).

Think of it! Jesus knows what we endure. He's been tempted just us. Learning to have a heart of compassion like Jesus is a great way to show His love to those who need Him.

May God give us, by His Holy Spirit, an understanding heart that reaches out to others in love and mercy.

Let us then approach God's throne of grace with confidence.
Hebrews 4:16
